

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – 11/4/12 NOON

New City, New York
Rockland County Board of Elections

The Rockland County BOE is announcing that one polling site in New City will be relocated due to damage caused by Hurricane Sandy. Voters that would normally vote at the Woodglen Elementary School at 121 Phillips Hill Rd., New City will be voting at the New City Elementary School at 60 Crestwood Dr., New City. The election districts affected are Clarkstown 40, 53, 60 and 69. The reason for the relocation is extensive damage in the vicinity of the driveway and parking lot of the school.

Crestwood Dr. is the second left turn, east of Rt. 304 off Congers Rd. Phone number for the Rockland County BOE is 845-638-5172.
